

Loretta David

Throughout her life, Loretta has worked to embrace her blackness and Nigerian heritage as strengths. She uses her personal experiences and involvement with social justice to continue educating herself on issues related to her generation.

Loretta stated that her goal is to become an attorney and inspire other African American girls to pursue higher education. She plans on attending a four-year university and majoring in Economics with a double major in Political Science or Public Policy. She plans on being active in college through mock trial and other organizations.
